1.3 Words in the singular include the plural and in the plural include the singular.

1.4 A reference to one gender includes a reference to all other genders.

1.5 Clause headings do not affect the interpretation of these Conditions.

1.6 Any words following the terms “including”, “include”, “in particular”, “for example” or any similar expression shall be construed as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the words, description, definition, phrase or term preceding or following those terms.

2. APPLICATION OF TERMS

2.1 The Contract shall be on these Conditions to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions (including any terms or conditions which the Customer purports to apply under any purchase order, confirmation of order, specification or other document).

2.2 No terms or conditions endorsed on, delivered with or contained in the Customer’s purchase order, confirmation of order, specification or any other Customer document shall form part of the Contract simply as a result of such document being referred to in the Contract.

2.3 These Conditions apply to all of the Company’s sales and any variation to these Conditions and any representations about the Units shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by the Company. The Customer acknowledges that it has not relied on, or been induced by, any statement, promise or representation made or given by or on behalf of the Company which is not set out in the Contract. Nothing in this condition shall exclude or limit the Company’s liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2.4 The Order shall be deemed to be an offer by the Customer for the purchase of Units subject to these Conditions, which the Company shall be free to accept or decline in its absolute discretion. If the Company accepts the Order, it shall do so by issuing the Order Confirmation.

2.5 No Order placed by the Customer shall be deemed to be accepted by the Company until an Order Confirmation is issued by the Company and, if required by the Company, the Deposit is paid, or (if earlier) the Customer collects the Units from the Company or, if applicable, the Company delivers the Units to the Customer, at which point and on which date the Contract shall come into existence.

2.6 On receipt of the Order Confirmation, the Customer shall ensure that the terms of its Order and the Specification are complete and accurate. If the Customer needs to amend the Order following receipt of the Order Confirmation, the Customer should contact the Company as soon as possible. The Company will let the Customer know if the change is possible and, if so, whether there are any changes to the Purchase Price, terms and conditions or date for collection or, if applicable, delivery.

2.7 Any quotation given by the Company shall not constitute an offer, and is given on the basis that no Contract shall come into existence until the Company issues an Order Confirmation to the Customer. Any quotation is valid for a period of 30 calendar days only from its date of issue or, if earlier, until the date it is withdrawn by the Company. Please note that if the Customer fails to confirm the quotation within 30 calendar days from its date of issue, once the Customer places an Order, the Company will provide the Customer with an updated collection or delivery date and, if applicable, updated terms and conditions.

2.8 The Company reserves the right to refuse any Order placed by the Customer.

2.9 The Customer acknowledges that the Contract is made between the Customer and the Company only, and that the Company has no contractual relationship with, or liability to, the End Consumer, notwithstanding that the Company may have introduced the End Consumer to the Customer or agreed any part of the Specification with the End Consumer. To the extent that the Company makes any agreement with the End Consumer, the Company is acting as the agent of the Customer, for the purpose of making a contract between the Customer and the End Consumer.

2.10 The Customer shall indemnify the Company against all liabilities, expenses, costs, claims, damages and losses suffered or incurred by the Company arising out of or in connection with any action, error or omission of the End Consumer relating to the Contract or any contract between the Customer and the End Consumer.

3. DESCRIPTION

3.1 The quantity and description of the Units shall be as set out in the Order Confirmation. Items shown in photographs or illustrations of the Units, for example, photographic props, plants, ornaments are not included in the sale of the Unit unless included in the Specification.

3.2 All samples, drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by the Company and any descriptions or illustrations contained in the Company's catalogues or brochures are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Units described in them. They shall not form part of the Contract. Immaterial deviations shall not form the basis of any claim against the Company. Any typographical, clerical or other errors or omissions in such documents or in any sales literature, quotation, price list, acceptance of offer, invoice or other document or information issued by the Company shall be subject to correction without any liability on the Company's part.

3.3 The Company may make minor alterations to the design of a Unit or substitute materials used in the construction of the Unit at any time without reference to the Customer unless such alterations or substitutions require amendment of the Specification in which case clause 3.5 shall apply.

3.4 Where the Company agrees to provide Specifications or plans which have been specifically designed for the Customer, the Customer is responsible for checking the accuracy and suitability of the Specifications and/or plans and the Company shall not be liable for any omissions or inaccuracies in the details of the measurements given. Any Specifications and plans prepared by the Company are, and remain, the Company's property and shall not be reproduced in whole or in part without the Company's prior written consent.

3.5 The Company reserves the right to make alterations to the design of Units or substitute materials, fixtures or fittings used in the construction of the Units with a similar alternative, where the agreed design, materials, fixtures or fittings are unavailable for any reason, and the Specification (as amended) shall be substituted for the Specification referred to in the Order Confirmation or quotation.

THE FOLLOWING CLAUSES 3.6 TO 3.8 (INCLUSIVE) APPLY WHERE THE CUSTOMER IS NOT A CONSUMER:

3.6 Notwithstanding that:

(a) a sample of the Units or a model Unit may have been exhibited to and inspected by the Customer or the End Consumer; or

(b) results of standard tests upon a sample of the Units may have been given to the Customer or the End Consumer, the Company hereby excludes any representation or warranty (whether express or implied by statute, common law or arising from conduct or a previous course of dealing, trade custom or usage) that the Units shall correspond with such sample or will produce equivalent results to such standard tests. The Customer acknowledges that the exhibition and/or inspection of a sample of the Units or the giving of such results shall not constitute a sale by reference to a sample or model.

3.7 In the event the Company ceases production of the design of Units and gives the Customer notice that it intends to substitute another design of Units for that in the Specification the Customer shall within 5 Working Days of such notice:

- (a) approve the changes to the design of Units; or
- (b) terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Company.

If the Customer does not notify the Company of its approval of the changes to the design of the substitute Unit within 5 Working Days then the change shall be deemed to be approved.

3.8 Upon termination of the Contract in accordance with clause 3.7(b) the Deposit, if any, or any other prepayments paid to the Company shall be returned to the Customer. The Company shall have no other liability whatsoever for any loss, damage, cost, expense, action and/or claim which may be suffered or incurred by the Customer, as a result of such cancellation.

THE FOLLOWING CLAUSE 3.9 APPLIES WHERE THE CUSTOMER IS A CONSUMER:

3.9 Where a sample of the Units or a model Unit may have been exhibited to and inspected by the Customer, the Customer acknowledges that each Unit is unique and the sample or model are not intended to be representative of the Units to be purchased and the Contract is not a sale by reference to a sample or model.

4. COLLECTION / DELIVERY

4.1 Unless otherwise agreed by the Company in writing, delivery of the Units shall take place when the Company places the Units specified in the Order at the Customer's disposal at the Company's place of business, or such other location as specified in the Order Confirmation ("Collection Point"). Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Customer shall make all arrangements for and bear all costs in connection with the collection of the Units.

4.2 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Customer shall promptly collect the Units when notified by the Company that the Units are ready for collection.

4.5 The Customer shall carefully check the interior of the Unit once the Unit is at the Customer's Premises.

4.6 The Customer shall be responsible for collection (and loading) of the Units and shall provide at the Collection Point, and at its expense, adequate and appropriate equipment and manual labour for transporting the Units and for loading the Units onto the transportation. It is the Customer's obligation to insure the Units from the time of collection at the Collection Point.

4.7 The Customer shall, at its expense, be responsible for obtaining all licences and consents necessary for the onward transportation of the Unit from the Collection Point (including escorts and road closures), and for ensuring that the route to the Customer's Premises is clear and accessible.

4.9 The Customer shall provide at the Delivery Point, and at its expense, adequate and appropriate equipment and manual labour (at least two people for the purposes of health and safety) for unloading the Units.

4.10 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Purchase Price for the Units shall be exclusive of all costs or charges in relation to packaging, loading, unloading, carriage and insurance, all of which the Customer shall pay in addition to the Purchase Price for the Units when it is due to pay for the Units.

4.11 The Customer shall procure free and unobstructed access for the Company or its subcontractors or agents to the Delivery Point for delivery of the Units. If the Delivery Point is at a property that is not owned or controlled by the Customer then the Customer shall procure the right for the Company to access such property for the purposes of delivery of the Units. In the event that the Company is unable to access the Delivery Point, the Company reserves the right to deem that the Customer has not accepted delivery of the Units and clause 4.12 shall apply.

4.12 If for any reason the Customer fails to accept delivery of any of the Units when they are ready for delivery, or the Company is unable to deliver the Units because the Customer has not provided appropriate instructions, documents, licences or authorisations:

- (a) the Units shall be deemed to have been delivered;
- (b) the Company shall invoice the Customer for the Unit in accordance with clause 7; and
- (c) the Company may store the Units until delivery to the Customer takes place, and the Customer shall be liable for all related costs and expenses (including storage, transport and insurance) incurred by the Company; and
- (d) if the Customer is not a Consumer, the risk in the Units shall pass to the Customer (including for loss or damage caused by the Company's negligence).

THE FOLLOWING CLAUSES 4.13 TO 4.14 (INCLUSIVE) APPLY WHERE THE CUSTOMER IS NOT A CONSUMER:

4.13 Any dates specified by the Company for collection or delivery of the Units are intended to be an estimate and time for collection or delivery shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, collection or delivery shall be within a reasonable time.

4.14 Subject to the other provisions of the Contract, the Company shall not be liable for any direct, indirect or consequential loss (including pure economic loss, loss of profits, loss of business and loss of goodwill), costs, damages, charges or expenses caused directly or indirectly by any delay or failure in the collection or delivery of the Units, nor shall any delay entitle the Customer to terminate or rescind the Contract unless such delay exceeds 90 days.

THE FOLLOWING CLAUSES 4.15 TO 4.16 (INCLUSIVE) APPLY WHERE THE CUSTOMER IS A CONSUMER:

4.15 The date for collection or delivery of the Units shall be confirmed by the Company once the Unit has entered the manufacturing process and the Customer agrees that any delivery dates notified by the Company are an estimate and the period for collection or delivery shall be any time up to 90 days after the date notified by the Company. The Customer agrees that collection or delivery within this period is not essential. If the Units are not made available for collection, or delivery is not made, within 90 days of the said date, the Customer may terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Company.

4.16 Subject to the other provisions of the Contract and to section 28 of the Consumer Rights Act 2015, the Company shall not be liable for any direct, indirect or consequential loss (including pure economic loss, loss of profits, loss of business and loss of goodwill), costs, damages, charges or expenses caused directly or indirectly by any delay or failure in the collection or delivery of the Units.

5. RISK/TITLE

5.1 Units to be collected by the Customer shall be at the Customer's risk immediately on collection by the Customer or their nominated haulier.

5.2 Ownership of the Units shall not pass to the Customer until the Company has received in full (in cleared funds) all sums due to it in respect of:

- (a) the Units; and

5.3 Until ownership of the Units has passed to the Customer, the Customer shall:

- (b) store the Unit safely and securely and ensure that it is readily identifiable as the property of the Company;
- (c) not remove, deface or obscure any identifying mark or packaging on or relating to the Unit;
- (d) maintain the Units in satisfactory condition including ensuring that the internal temperature in the Units is not less than 12°C and the Units are adequately ventilated at all times; and
- (e) keep the Units insured on the Company's behalf for their full price against all risks to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company. On request the Customer shall produce the policy of insurance to the Company; and
- (f) deliver the Unit immediately to the Company on demand.

5.4 The Company shall be entitled to recover payment for the Units notwithstanding that ownership of any of the Units has not passed from the Company.

5.5 The Customer grants the Company, its agents and employees an irrevocable licence at any time to enter the Customer's Premises, or any other premises where the Units are or may be stored, in order to inspect them, or, where the Customer's right to possession has terminated, to recover them and to sell or otherwise deal with or dispose of them. The Company shall be entitled to take such steps as are necessary to recover the Unit from the Customer's Premises including detaching the Unit from its base and from any utility supply, and the Company shall not be liable for any damage to the Customer's Premises or any part of it caused during the recovery of the Unit from the Customer's Premises unless caused by the Company's negligence and in such circumstances the Company's liability shall be limited in accordance with clause 11. The Customer indemnifies the Company against all costs and damages that it may reasonably incur when taking possession of and removing the Unit.

5.6 Where the Customer has purchased more than one Unit and the Company is unable to determine which Units are the Units in respect of which the Customer's right to possession has terminated, the Company is entitled to assume that payments received from the Customer are allocated to the Units in the order they were delivered to the Customer.

5.7 The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the Unit is installed upon a base constructed to meet the Company's recommendations and guidelines and any applicable laws and industry guidelines (including any electrical and plumbing standards). In the event that any Unit is installed on a base which fails to meet with such requirements, the Company shall not be responsible for any structure defects (including the Unit becoming out of square/alignment or the misalignment of doors or windows) or other deficiencies that manifest in the Unit, arising out of such failure.

5.8 On termination of the Contract, howsoever caused, the Company's (but not the Customer's) rights contained in this clause 5 shall remain in effect.

6. PRICE

6.1 The Purchase Price is the price set out on the Order Confirmation.

6.2 The Purchase Price for the Units shall be exclusive of any costs and expenses incurred by the Company in performing the Contract (including packaging, loading, handling, insurance, freight, carriage, delivery and siting charges), value added tax and any duties or imposition of whatever nature payable on the Units, all of which the Customer shall pay in addition where relevant.

6.3 In certain circumstances the Company may need to increase the Purchase Price of the Units after the Contract has been entered into. The Company will only do this where the increase is necessary:

- (a) to reflect any increase in the cost to the Company which is beyond its control including:
 - (i) devaluation of the pound sterling or fluctuation in the rates of foreign exchange;
 - (ii) changes in the prices of raw materials or component parts; and
 - (iii) changes in manufacturing costs or other economic circumstances; and/or
- (b) in consequence of any change in collection or delivery dates or a Specification which is requested by the Customer,

Upon termination of the Contract, the Deposit, if any, or any other pre-payments paid to the Company shall be returned to the Customer. The Company shall have no other liability whatsoever for any loss, damage, cost, expense, action and/or claim which may be suffered by the Customer as a result of such cancellation. If the Customer does not notify the Company within 14 days of receipt of the Company's notice, the Customer shall be deemed to have approved such increase.

6.5 If the Customer does not agree with the amount of the increase notified in relation to 6.3(b) then the Customer may withdraw their request to change the collection or delivery dates or Specifications by giving the Company notice in writing within 5 Working Days of receipt of the Company's notice, and the Company shall proceed to construct the Unit on the basis of the unchanged Specification.

6.6 If the Customer agrees with the amount of the increase, or does not respond in accordance with clause 6.4 or clause 6.5, then the Company shall issue an amended Order Confirmation showing the amended Purchase Price, which shall be binding on the Customer.

THE FOLLOWING CLAUSES 6.7 TO 6.9 (INCLUSIVE) APPLY WHERE THE CUSTOMER IS A CONSUMER:

If the Customer does not withdraw their request, they will be deemed to have agreed to the amount of the increase.

6.9 If the Customer agrees with the amount of the increase then the Company shall issue an amended Order Confirmation showing the amended Purchase Price, which shall be binding on the Customer.

7. PAYMENT

7.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Company shall invoice the Customer for the Purchase Price:

- (b) where it is agreed in writing that delivery takes place at the Customer's premises, when the Unit is delivered to the Delivery Point.

7.2 If staged payments have been agreed this will be specified in the Order Confirmation. If a Deposit is required from the Customer or other payment is made by the Customer with the Order, the Company shall send an invoice to the Customer with the Order Confirmation.

7.3 Subject to clause 7.6, payment of the price for the Units is due in pounds sterling by the due date stated on each invoice ("Due Date").

7.4 Time for payment shall be of the essence and failure to make any payment to the Company by the Due Date shall entitle the Company at its option to treat the Contract as repudiated and act accordingly, including forfeiting any Deposit held and retaining it without any obligation to the Customer.

7.5 No payment shall be deemed to have been received until the Company has received cleared funds.

7.6 The Customer shall make all payments due under the Contract in full without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise unless the Customer has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid by the Company to the Customer.

8. CANCELLATION OF ORDERS

8.1 An Order may be cancelled only by the Company's written acceptance of such cancellation. Where the Company accepts such cancellation, the Company reserves the right to charge the Customer for any liabilities, costs, damages, losses or expenses (including any direct, indirect or consequential losses and all other professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by the Company as a result of the cancellation.
